Words from the Wa-Klo Winter Office

Hello there!

Can you believe that this is already the 4th edition of the Wa-Klonian coming out to you!? The months are flying by, and that means it's getting ever closer to the exciting and fun times we are going to have at camp this summer!

In this edition there are some camper introductions included, so we can continue to get to know each other. If you haven't already sent your introduction, make sure you send it in so that yours can be included in the next Wa-Klonian. We want to get to know you too! You can also email through pictures of yourself, your family, your pets, anything you'd like for us to see! We'll display it all in future Wa-Klonians.

Don't forget; we always love to hear from you, so email us with any questions, comments, or news you may have to share at:

info@campwaklo.com

Until the next Wa-Klonian edition!

Happy Valentine's Day and...

How! How!!!

WA-CKY WA-KLO KNOW HOW

Did you know???

...that for a few years in the 1940's Camp Wa-Klo was a co-ed camp? Ms. Watkinson, the camp director at the time, had a son who she wanted to attend camp with her during WWII.

Did you know???

...the lake that Wa-Klo sits on is actually a man-made pond, Thorndike Pond, but it is always referred to as a lake on the Wa-Klo paths?

Did you know???

... Frederick Gunn founded the first summer camp in 1861 paving the way for all summer camps? Gunn and his wife operated the "Gunnery Camp" in Connecticut for twelve more years.
